RIGHTS OF PARTIES OF INTEREST AFTER SALE

If the property is not redeemed and is sold, you have the right to claim proceeds remaining after tax and assessment liens and costs of sale are satisfied. To claim the excess proceeds, you must be a "party of interest" as defined by California Revenue and Taxation Code section 4675.

A claim for excess proceeds must be filed within ONE YEAR after the tax collector's deed to the purchaser is recorded.

The law protects parties of interest by requiring that any assignment to another person of the right to claim excess proceeds can be made only by means of a dated, written document. The document must specifically state that the right to claim excess proceeds is being assigned and that each party to the transaction has informed the other of the value of the right being assigned.

If you have any questions concerning redemption, the proposed sale of the property, or your right to claim excess proceeds, call the person named below between the hours of _____ and _____.
